

The Constellation Rochester Area Mensa

February, 2012

Short & Sweet

Hello Everybody and Happy 2012!

I just received a huge package of activities to learn, see, and do around Rochester for the entire year! I have to check some of the costs, but am very excited about all of the options we have: Let's just say it cost over $4.00 for them to send the envelope! Anyway, I will be doing quite a bit of calling to find out specifics of all the deals that look interesting. We will keep you updated as events and gatherings are scheduled.

We have a free building to use on the west side of the city. I volunteer at the Edna Tina Wilson Living Center on Island Cottage Road in Greece. I mainly do hospice and vigil care. Sometimes I just entertain people (and myself) with toys! I will refer to it as the Edna Tina to simplify things a bit.

Now, my goal is to find a free building on the other side of town. Perhaps I can find another nursing facility that (Continued on Page 2) needs volunteers! The Edna Tina is great because the rooms have cooking facilities and the staff is great! If anyone knows of a location that we could use for free (or low cost) please let me know. I would consider finding a nursing home in that area if someone knows of one. Another option would be someone's house. We used to have a NPR gathering (no particular reason!) They were always really fun and well attended.

Eventually, I would like to have potluck dinners, games, movies, and possibly even more debates (I still am well supplied with silly string to break up disagreements!) I am always open for suggestions!

I am wishing everyone a fantastic 2012! Don't be too hard on yourself if you are not successful in keeping your resolution. I've never known anyone who has! Instead, try doing it monthly, or even weekly if that makes it more possible to succeed!

Hope to see you soon,

Julie Stout,
RAM LocSec

March RAM Events (so far!)*

Attention fellow Mensans, please be aware:* We are continuing the practice of publishing at least the known events for the coming month ahead of time, usually at least the First Thirstday and whatever else is nailed down by the time we go to print. This is just a preview into the future month, so please be sure to refer to the RAM Web site, consult your Constellation issue for the next month when you get it, or give us a call or send an email if you have a specific question (or suggestion).

First Thirstday – Thursday, March 1, 2012 7:00 pm

Slayton Place Restaurant
54 Slayton Avenue
Spencerport, NY 14559

585.352.0260
Limited info available at:
<http://bit.ly/nX5oFp>

We first attended this restaurant several months ago and the general consensus was... THUMBS UP!

The restaurant is located on Slayton Avenue, directly across the parking lot from the Spencerport Tops Market. We expect no problem finding a place to park on a Tuesday! With the air of a family diner, Slayton Place offers exceptional versions of classic menu items and generous portions. Favorites include seafood Diablo and chicken and artichoke French, and a fish fry available every day. Assuming that someone is having fun making a play on words, I wonder what the connection to "Peyton Place" might be. Hmm... No RSVP required; look for the yellow balloon.

Stay Tuned – More to Come – March, 2012

We are working on a number of additional events – the new and exciting as well as the comfortable and familiar – for the balance of January... Please let us know if you would like to have your event listed.

About Our Cover and "Centerfold" Photos

AH HA! We finally did it: a photo published the same month it was taken! This month's photo is Hot Mama, 02/02/2012, Copyright © 2012 Robert Horner, indicative of the fine fare enjoyed at Papa C's in Fairport. Papa C's certainly has become one of our eastside favorites – we hope you join us next time out!

The picture we use for our cover and centerfold is open to all who care to participate. If you have attended a recent RAM event and would like to suggest one of your own photos, send it in!

The criteria are fairly simple: It must be an original photograph submitted by anyone – RAM member or non-member – depicting anything of interest from a recent RAM event. Other than a few editorial and/or technical details, that's pretty much it! Feel free to call or see the Web site for complete details.

reMARK by Betsy Yvonne Mark, RVC3 – February, 2012

Well, that's an experience I hope I do not ever have to repeat! I wrote last month that I had attended the American Mensa Committee (AMC) meeting in Las Vegas the first weekend in December. That column was written a month earlier and that, most certainly, was my intention. However, at the last minute I had to cancel my trip. Not willing to leave Region 3 without a vote, I arranged to attend the meeting via a phone connection. I tried using the speakerphone, but was not able to hear very well, so nine hours of holding the phone to my ears except for two 15-minute breaks and an hour lunch break made for two very sore ears and one very tired RVC!

This was definitely not the way to be at a meeting! When it came time to vote, I raised my hand, but couldn't be seen. Then it was, "Betsy, how do you vote?" Had to "un-mute" to vote or to voice my opinion. There were presentations that I could hear, but not see. There were facial expressions that couldn't be seen. I know I missed out on the discussions held during lunch and the breaks. Other than the placement of my name placard next to the phone microphone, a cute picture of which was sent to me, the experience was just plain awful. Skyping might have made it a bit better, but not enough to ever get me to say that board meetings can be effectively conducted via conference call instead of in person.

In December I wrote to LocSecs asking for nominations to represent Region 3 on the National Nominating Committee. Self-nominations are welcome until February 24. I need your name, local group, and your Mensa biography. I will prepare a ballot to be distributed to Region 3 LocSecs on February 25. The 3 top vote getters will be presented for approval by the AMC at the March meeting. Remember that anyone serving on the NomComm or anyone living at that same address cannot run for a national office. The NomComm will decide its role (the primary role will be to find members to run for office – Chair, 1st Vice Chair, 2nd Vice Chair, Secretary, Treasurer, and Regional Vice Chairs – but it may empower itself to pass judgment on those who seek NomComm endorsement) when it meets at the 2012 AG in Reno. NomComm members do NOT need to attend the AG. Looking forward to hearing from you soon!

Looking Ahead to the Coming Months2012 Could Be a Very Good Year for Rochester Area Mensa

For many people, the beginning of each year is a time of reviewing, adjusting, and attempting to strive toward reasonable goals for the year ahead. Indeed, by February many people having given up on more than one “new year’s resolution” and have set their sights on next year already. (I know, I’m one of them... Did you read page 7!? 😊)

We all have lives of our own; lives separate from our RAM involvement. Yet, belonging to and participating in our RAM family adds a dimension of its own and enriches life’s experience. Quite a few ideas have been discussed regarding our direction for 2012 and many provide excellent goals. As we venture further into this year, we invite you to voice your thoughts and ideas as well, and will strive to keep you informed.

I realize I have brought this up before but I think it is worth repeating, lest we forget. When I begin to question the reasons why we do what we do, I keep coming back to the guiding principles that define the essence of Mensa. I think we would do well to keep these ideals at the forefront of our thoughts and interactions:

- 1. To identify and foster human intelligence for the benefit of humanity;
- 2. To encourage research into the nature, characteristics, and uses of intelligence;
- 3. To provide a stimulating intellectual and social environment for its members.

Let’s try and keep all three of these ideals in mind while planning for continued growth and improvement in the coming year.

- Terry Redfield

A Classic RAM Oops!

My apologies about having no January issue!

You know what they say about good intentions... This year's holiday season, work, family, end-of-year business matters, and so on ad infinitum conspired against getting the January Constellation out to you. While we have at least sometimes in the past combined the December and January editions (as well as the July and August editions), we really did want to have a complete set for 2012. Well, there's always next year!

Meanwhile, if anything of importance comes along we have email and, of course, we always try and stay a bit ahead. Feel free to contact any of the RAM officers with questions or comments.
