

The Constellation Rochester Area Mensa

September, 2012

Short & Sweet

Hello to Everyone!

I hope that you enjoyed the end of your summer! We had a number of unusual gatherings this season. I understand that every member wants something different from his or her Mensa experience. I am optimistic that we can combine an interesting collection for everyone! As always, I welcome all suggestions.

I appreciate people's patience about the gifted youth program. I am currently in contact with another group in New York that has a very well developed program. I, of course, will keep you posted. One thing I would like to bring up as a subject for everyone involved to be considering: We have a combination of students who are home schooled as well as public and private schooled. An activity that might be of value to someone home schooled (like presentations, for example) would not be of interest to a person already in a traditional school setting. We will have to compromise on some activities. (Continued on Page 2)

However, the information I have coming from the other Mensa group includes a vast number of resources. I am hopeful that we will be able to combine individual interests with social opportunities for our local members. Please remember, one doesn't have to be an actual member to participate in much of what we schedule.

As far as becoming a member is concerned, we will be having our annual October Testing Day next month. The particular information is included a few pages below, but for now I would like to pass along the date of Saturday, October 20th so that all interested individuals can save the date. The time is early afternoon. It is also possible that you may already have all necessary proof of IQ information. The National Mensa Website includes a listing of accepted exams.

I learned an important lesson yesterday. Debates are an interesting exercise in mental acrobatics! To be truly effective, both sides have to be open to communication with one another. If it is just two opposing sides talking at each other it doesn't accomplish anything! I got involved in a VERY lengthy (over 2 hours!) debate on the Internet with someone about a somewhat controversial subject. Of course if something is a boring, one-sided subject there would be no need for debates! I guess what I ended up coming away with was the appreciation that we live in this country that allows so many different opinions. After one has traveled to a number of other countries in the world that do not encourage freethinking, it makes me acknowledge Mensa as an intelligent organization, questioning society in itself. It is fascinating to me that some of the other countries included in Mensa International are those same places that keep people from speaking their mind! I know this from my own personal experience in travels around the world. Well, that was my deep thought for the day!

On a funny note I would like to share another one of my "unusual" perspectives on life. I will first say that I mean no disrespect to anyone, and people who know me realize that my brain has a way of being exceptionally ditzzy sometimes! A number of years ago, a man I was dating brought up the subject of diets. My response was that basically I did not believe in them because everyone that was on one was overweight! As expected, he looked quite puzzled! (I seem to have that effect on people!) Please allow me to explain; I believe that everything in life should be done in moderation. If one places too much focus on any one aspect of his or her life, it frequently detracts from creating a healthy overall balance.

Hope to see you soon,

Julie Stout

About Our Cover and "Centerfold" Photos

This month's photo is The Sun Sinks into Lake Ontario, 07/05/2012, Copyright © 2012 Robert Horner, including a beautiful sunset – typical of Castaways – on an equally beautiful summer evening. Sorry if you missed this event but we hope you can join us next time out!

The picture we use for our cover and centerfold is open to all who care to participate. If you have attended a recent RAM event and would like to suggest one of your own photos, send it in!

The criteria are fairly simple: It must be an original photograph submitted by anyone – RAM member or non-member – depicting anything of interest from a recent RAM event. Other than a few editorial and/or technical details, that's pretty much it! Feel free to call or see the Web site for complete details.

October RAM Events (so far!)*

Attention fellow Mensans, please be aware:* We are continuing the practice of publishing at least the known events for the coming month ahead of time, usually at least the First Thirstday and whatever else is nailed down by the time we go to print. This is just a preview into the future month, so please be sure to refer to the RAM Web site, consult your Constellation issue for the next month when you get it, or give us a call or send an email if you have a specific question (or suggestion).

First Thirstday / Laptop Night – Thursday, October 4, 2012 7:00 pm

MacGregor's 1129 Empire Blvd Rochester, NY 14609	585.288.8630 MacGregorsGrillAndTapRoom.net (Penfield [Formerly Froggy's])

SOMETHING NEW! This month we are going to try something just a little bit different. We are combining our regularly scheduled "First Thirstday" event with a new concept, a "Laptop Night!" Participation in the "Laptop" portion of the event is optional, but because MacGregor's has WiFi available, some of us are planning to bring our laptop computers and share tip and tricks that hopefully will benefit one and all.

MacGregor's has been described as "a beer lover's paradise" and they have an inviting menu of appetizers, soups, salads, sandwiches, and entrées as well. MacGregor's has been a long-time group favorite, but this is a different location, found at "the bottom of the hill" on Empire Boulevard, on the south side. We hope to see you there! No RSVP required; look for the yellow balloon.

RAM / Mensa Testing Day – Saturday, October 20, 2012 12:00 noon

Irondequoit Public Library (Helen McGraw Branch) 2180 E Ridge Road Rochester, NY 14622	For more information, contact Julie Stout or Terry Redfield (See back cover for contact info.)

Prior registration is strongly suggested but all are welcome. The Mensa testing fee is $40; consider bringing cash if not prepaid. Testing begins promptly at 12:00 noon; candidates should plan to show up early. Two Mensa-approved IQ tests are administered, and passing either one will qualify the candidate for membership.

We will be attempting to contact all those who have expressed an interest in membership in early October. However, if you know of anyone interested, please have him or her contact us. The minimum age for any IQ test Mensa offers is 14 years. Again, prior registration and prepayment makes things a lot easier for everyone.

For those wishing to attend, the Irondequoit / Helen McGraw library is located just west of Wegmans on E. Ridge Road in Irondequoit, on the same side of the street. We plan to have a Mensa poster displayed on the on door – no yellow balloons this time (Oops, sorry! ☺)

Don't forget that Mensa also recognizes some 200 or so standardized intelligence and IQ tests, so that may be an option for those who do not wish to participate in our October Testing Day. More information is available at <http://us.mensa.org/join/testscores/>

reMARK by Betsy Yvonne Mark, RVC3 – September, 2012

It's almost fall, my very favorite season! I'm not crazy about hot or cold weather and the sun is definitely my nemesis. Yea for cooler days and nights.

Here's the news from the AMC (American Mensa Committee) held during the 2012 Annual Gathering in Reno. The complete minutes of the meeting can be found on the National Web site We were given an update on our new marketing program about which you'll hear more in the coming months either right here or via a National publication. A task force is looking at revisions of our national by-laws, to address various perceived shortcomings in our organizational structure. A new pricing plan was adopted for Life Member dues. That plan will make Life Memberships a bit more costly for older members while making Life Memberships a bit less expensive for younger members. Watch for the announcements so that you can make the most of your dollars and join as a Life Member before or after the new plan goes into effect. At our September meeting to be held in Arlington, Texas, one of the agenda items will be to increase the dues. Of course, you'll hear more about that, too.

San Diego was given the bid for the 2016 Annual Gathering. 2013 will be in Fort Worth, 2014 will be in Boston, and 2015 will be right here in our own Region 3 in Louisville.

Beth Anne Demeter was appointed Membership Officer, and reappointed were Bob Bevard as Development Officer, Greg Timmers as Director of Science and Education, and Brian Reeves as Communications Officer. When their sponsor was unable to attend, several motions had been submitted for consideration at the Annual Business Meeting were withdrawn.

As you are reading this I hope it's during, if there is any, some down time while you are having a great time at Western Pennsylvania Mensa's Regional Gathering. If you're not there yet, you might be able to get there if you leave post haste! It's at the Doubletree (formerly Radisson), 101 DoubleTree Dr., (aka 101 Radisson Dr.), Pittsburgh, PA 15205, 800.445.8667. For info contact Jamie Fritz, chair at 412.612.0634 or jljongstredh@comcast.net.

Cincinnati Area Mensa is in an excited state (any of the energy levels of a physical system – like an RG committee) as you are invited to the HyperchaRGed gathering. (Hypercharge: the quantum number equal to B [baryons] + S [strangeness] + C [charmed].) Gravitational attraction and radiant energy brings you to the Doubletree in Sharonville starting Nov. 30, and inertia takes you to a half-life of the event on Dec. 2. The natural frequency of this event is 30! Yes, the 30th Regional Gathering!
